MOTION

That Council;

1. Note the published objectives by the producers and distributors of the recent three-part documentary "Meet the Neighbours" focused on Maryborough in Central Goldfields Shire included to "shine a light on what is a divided, two speed and unequal Australia, and what some of the solutions to this disparity might be" and that in turn may "kickstart an important national conversation about the challenges facing parts of regional Australia;"
2. Resolve to write to the Prime Minister in terms of the draft letter attached, seeking his support and leadership for this important national conversation to commence within National Cabinet, with a view to developing a strategy to redress key challenges facing regional Australian towns, and through more focussed and strategic investment and better infrastructure and services provision, create a fairer and more equal Australia;
3. Agree to copy of this letter being sent to the Premier of Victoria with a covering letter seeking her own support for this action within National Cabinet as well as copies being sent to Members of Parliament representing our Shire at Commonwealth and State levels; and
4. Request the CEO to incorporate this real opportunity for Maryborough and Central Goldfields Shire into Council's advocacy program, targeted and focused to specific Ministers, government bodies and funding agencies and actual grant streams.
